

Brooklyn Homestay

Judith Stevens

Neal and Judith Stevens have lived in Brooklyn for the past fifteen years. They have spent the better half of this time restoring their historic turn of the century home. The neighborhood is charming and close to Prospect Park and shopping. Neal, originally from Boston, came to New York to attend NYU in the early 80s. He is a working screenwriter. Judith, a native Brooklynite, works as a manager, producer, and script consultant and has recently started "Third Hand," a local concierge business. The Stevens' enjoy other cultures and good conversation. Neal spends most of his time writing and is an avid film watcher. Judith does some gardening, spends time at the gym and hangs out on the weekends with friends.

Children living at home? Yes: Jacob, 26
Pets: Yes, two dogs
WiFi: Yes
Bathroom: private half bath, shared full bath
Available kitchen: yes
Average travel time to Rennert: 45 minutes

